WILLIAM BILL EASTLICK Obituary

NOV 17, 1943 - OCT 29, 2013

William D. 'Bill' Eastlick On November 17, 1943 William Dan Eastlick was born to Willard Denzel Eastlick and Frances Margaret Clemons in Great Falls, Montana.

In the fall of 1949, Willard and Fran moved north of Promise City, where he helped his dad with farm chores. He attended the one room school just a mile up the road. After graduating from Seymour High School in 1962 he started farming for himself.

Bill joined the Iowa National Guard in 1967. In 1968, the family moved south of Seymour. There he started a welding shop and raised stock cattle. He ran the shop where he helped many farmers keep their machinery working for planting and harvesting up until he passed.

For many years Bill called bingo every Thursday evening at the Seymour American Legion, where he was a member. Things Bill enjoyed were reminiscing at family gatherings, the companionship of his Australian Shepard named Tippy and spending Saturday at the public auctions.

In his later years you could always find Bill having breakfast at the East Side Caf in Seymour or playing cards at Johnson's Barber Shop.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents Fran and Willard. Survivors include his brother, Steven Eastlick of Promise City; two nieces Brenda Munden of Promise City and Connie Starr of Centerville; six great nieces and nephews, Brooke Enloe of Centerville, Jade, Michael, Matthew and Jewelia Munden of Promise City and Breckin Starr of Centerville.

Growing up on the farm north of Promise City, our family lived just west of Bill and his family. Bill and I walked to and from Oak Grove, the one room country school, together when I was in 4th grade. After that I went to North Salem. When my dad passed away in 1958 we moved from the farm but I often thought of the Eastlick family. If I remember correctly, Steven was around my sister, Jan's age. One year our families got together for Thanksgiving. They were good neighbors. It was nice reading the comments about Bill here. May he rest in peace. Patty Littsen Hansen

Steve and Family, I am so sorry to hear of your loss of Bill. We always liked Bill, and he was so friendly, and always asked about our family. Tom especially enjoyed him. Our thoughts and Prayers are with you.

Bill was a regular at our farm auctions and he always stopped by the food trailer to ask me, 'Have you been staying out of trouble' To which I would reply, 'What do you think That would be no fun.' His reply was always the same, 'Just what I figured.' And off he would go to look at the line up of the auction. I will miss Bill at the auctions. ~Rest In Peace.

I will miss seeing Bill around town. He helped me load my groceries at Aldis not too long ago. Becky Gotheridge said that Bob Thomas was a 'Gentle Giant', I put Bill in that category too. Now they are together. Rest in Peace, Bill.

Bill will be missed by all that knew him. He was one of the good old guys that stayed in our community and contributed as a service to those that need welding or other work done. School memories are good ones too.
