John Junior Merritt Obituary

AUG 2, 1937 - NOV 2, 2013

John Junior Merritt of Seymour, Iowa, passed away at Mercy Hospital in Des Moines on November 2, 2013, at the age of 76 years and three months.

He was born on August 2, 1937, to John LeRoy and Cosy Ethel Clark Merritt, in Walnut Township, near Seymour, Iowa. He was the youngest of four sons. He attended Center Country School through the eighth grade and then graduated from Seymour High School in 1955.

His father passed away near the end of John's freshman year in high school, and many friends and neighbors and his three older brothers just stepped in and helped John and his mother continue the farming that they were left to do, both with good advice and much hard physical work. John was still farming with a team of horses at the time, and his brothers helped him to get his first tractor.

While John was still in high school, he gave his heart to the Lord during revival service with Rev. Bill Cleeton and his own brother, Rev. Jack Merritt. John married Norma Jean (Jeannie) Sharp on August 12, 1956, at the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Seymour, Iowa, and they welcomed four children into their lives.

John retired in 2007, after 38 years at L & M Tire Distributors, Inc., a company he and his friend, Bob Lockridge, started in January of 1969. In later years, John left Jeannie and son, Andy, to pretty much handle day to day business at L & M Tire and the farming while he worked as a Sales Agent for Hankook Tire America, setting up new distribution dealerships in five states in the upper midwest.

He enjoyed his business life, but his true love was at the farm, often telling others that it was peaceful, mind clearing therapy for a stressed out road salesman. He loved his horses, loved the sport of horse trading. He enjoyed the horse trips to the mountains with friends, and the many trail rides the group made in southern Missouri.

I'll always remember Uncle John as a generous, humble, and welcoming man who placed a high value on family and friends. I'll never forget his advice to me not long after Patty went to Heaven 'Remember this, Denny,' he said. 'Life is for the living.' It was his way of encouraging me not to give up, not to stop living, but believe that God still had some purpose for me down here. That was good advice. I believe that Uncle John continues to live in Heaven with the Lord and so many who have gone ahead of him and that his fatherly advice to me that day is still a good word today for all of us. Debbie and I are praying for you, Aunt Jean, and the entire family, friends, and community who are going through this season of grief. Let's all give like he gave, laugh like he laughed, and love like he loved. Until, by the power of the same 'Old Rugged Cross' of Jesus in which he trusted as a young man, we join that biggest of all Family Reunions either at our 'Home Call' or the Second Coming of Christ.

My regards to all that mourn the loss of this fine gentleman. I like to think that when Big John reached the gates of heaven he was warmly greeted by those that went before him, I am sure that he did not even have to knock on the door of that gate, as he approached the door swung open and he was welcomed with open arms. Respectfully, Michael

Uncle John always greeted me with a smile and kind word. Through the many miles and limited visits (the military life) the early life experiences 'down on the farm' certainly involed him. I will miss you, Uncle! Love and prayers go out to all who knew and will always love him! Jim

We are so thankful that we got to see Uncle Johnny in June when we went to Seymour. When Ron and I went through cancer treatment at the same time Uncle Johnny would call and see how we were doing and always cheered us up. I know my mom and Dad would have done that so it made us feel so loved to know that Johnny and Jeanne were there for us with their love. Johnny's family are in our thoughts and prayers. Much love, Ron and Diane

About 5 years ago, i went with my Mom (Tracie Sharp) to the family reunion in Iowa. While there i also celebrated my sweet 16. Although this is the only time i remember meeting my great uncle, i know that i had before a few times. I remember him telling me that there was never a day he went without his bibs. I thought it was so weird, because it is where i come from. But having spent a week in Iowa i realized that it was as normal as can be. I remember Johnny as a fun, hard working, loving man. And i will never forget him.
