I have so many memories of Deb. I met her in 1987 when I moved into the neighborhood. Many afternoons and evenings were spent at each other's house, mainly Deb's, talking and laughing. We shared a lot of early morning walks. She was a great support and provided a lot of comfort when Larry died. She introduced me to my husband, Mike, who I saw at her grandmother's auction; I am ever grateful to her for that. Even though our time together lessened over time because of both of us moving, I knew I could call her anytime and pick up where we left off. I will miss Deb, but am sure she is reuniting with family and friends who left before her.

Deb was such a wonderful woman, so compassionate towards the school children and their family. She was always on top of everything giving me friendly reminders of school closings or early outs. She will be truly missed by all.
