Bill will be missed. He always warmed my sole when; laughingly I smooched on the shoulder of his soft shirt as we sat in church. His kind smile and jolly laugh was a welcoming to me as I sat with him. All our Love! God has him now. We'll smooch again! Posted by Greg and Sharron McKee - Moravia, IA - Friend September 22, 2012

Uncle Bill, I will never forget going to your gas station store and spending time with you, Christmas at the beach house, getting a tootsie roll every time I saw you, your laugh and sense of humor. It has all left an lasting impression on me and will forever help to guide me in life's adventures. May you rest in peace and forever have time to catch up with your brother. Love Adam

We will miss Uncle Bill's wonderful sense of humor. You never knew what to expect from him, you always needed to look in his eyes to know if he was being serious or joking. We all have been the target of his amazing sense of humor. RIP Unkie Bill Posted by Cheryl and Eike Johnson - Hillsboro, OR - Niece September 17, 2012
