Parma Lee was a precious soul who was loved by all of her group home peers. She worked at Hardees and loved the employees there. It was a real joy to see her smiling face as she wiped the tables off. Posted by Caroline Saale - Grandview, MO - Caregiver and friend for years. November 24, 2012

Parma was a special girl who had lots of love to give. She always made me laugh. I met her when she was 3 years old, when her brother Russell took me to Iowa to meet his mother, Tony (a man much loved) and Parma. I fell in love with her the moment I first laid eyes on her, and still do to this day. Thanks to the care she has been given, by many caretakers. My love goes out to the Paul family. They always made me feel like family. God bless you all thru this time. You are a family that will always remain in my heart, To Stan and Sally, we still are family and my love goes out to you. xoxoxo Shirley (Rinehart) Dalton Posted by Shirley - Kansas City, MO - ex sister-in-law November 23, 2012

December 13, 1953 we were blessed with a little angel who has been a joy to our lives since she was born. I remember all the times we spent together and the times I had her down here with my children and my grandchildren. She always was going to have a baby and I was always going to be an uncle, but never made it there yet. Now I want to say goodbye and she is going to be with her mother and her father, whom she has been wanting to be with for years!! May she rest in peace... I love you little girl!! Posted by Stanley Rinehart - Raytown, MO - brother November 21, 2012

Parm, you are truly the best sis that anyone could ever ask for. We had so many fun times together.
We shopped till we dropped. We had dance parties at the house many, many times. We cooked together. We laughed a lot!!!. I think one of the funniest things we ever did was make doughnuts together. You had so much fun and then you and the kids had a flour fight. It looked like it had snowed in the dining room(where we rolled the dough out). We all laughed till we cried. I love you with all my heart and will miss you terribly. Posted by Sally Rinehart - Raytown, MO - Sister-in-Law
