Kathy Cullor

OCT 14, 1949 - OCT 16, 2015

Kathy Cullor, age 66 of Cincinnati, Iowa passed away Friday, October 16, 2015 at the Centerville Nursing and Rehab Center in Centerville, Iowa.

She was born October 14, 1949 in Centerville, Iowa, the daughter of Lyle and Glenna (Hawkins) Wells. Kathy graduated from Centerville High School in 1967. She was united in marriage to John Cullor on June 10, 1967 in Kirksville, Missouri. Kathy and John were blessed with a daughter, Jennifer.

Kathy worked as an IT Administrator for the State of Iowa for thirty four years, retiring in 2002. In retirement, John and Kathy owned/operated Cullor Enterprises out of their home. The couple enjoyed many years of apparel decorating and printing. Kathy was also a devoted member of the Cincinnati United Methodist Church. Most importantly, she loved her family, especially her three grandchildren, Cyle, Ashley, and Charlie.

She is survived by her husband, John Cullor of Cincinnati, Iowa; a daughter, Jennifer Heidenwith of Unionville, Missouri; three grandchildren, Cyle Heidenwith, Ashley Heidenwith, and Charles "Charlie" Heidenwith all of Unionville, Missouri; and seven siblings, Pat Womboldt, Susie Poland, Lyle "Sonny" Wells, John Wells, Margie Stewart, Carl "Billy" Wells, and Athena Heidenwith.

Kathy was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Jack Wells; and a sister, Jean Shumaker-Siems.

Funeral services will be held at 11AM, Friday, October 23rd, 2015 at Lange Funeral Home & Crematory in Centerville, Iowa with Pastor Joan Ervin and Pastor Howard Luscan officiating. Burial will follow in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery in Cincinnati. A visitation will take place at Lange Funeral Home on Friday from 9AM-11AM.

Memorials have been established to the Cincinnati United Methodist Church and may be mailed to Lange Funeral Home, 1900 S. 18th St., Centerville, Iowa, 52544.

Condolences may be shared online at www.langefh.com.

Sending my thoughts and prayers to John and family. Kathy was my first supervisor when I started working at DAS. She was the kindest, most patient and considerate supervisor a person could ask for. Kathy and I shared a lot of good times, a lot of hard work, but we always made it through due to her excellent leadership. I have very fond memories of Kathy and I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. I am sad to loose my sister. She is a very dear friend & I will miss her but she will ALWAYS be in my heart. What a beautiful family she is leaving behind. But God chose to take her to Heaven to be with him. He let us keep her for 66 years. I am & will continue to pray for my family as we share this grief. GOD IS OUR REFUGE AND STRENGTH, A VERY PRESENT HEIP IN TROUBLE. PSALMS 461. We will see Kathy again. Love Liz Posted by Elizebeth Dixon - Cedar Rapids, IA - Sister-in law October 19, 2015
