I first met Garold during my 18 years of work at a store, PS Notions, in Boomfield. He would come in to look at motorcycle magazines, & chat with us ladies. He was always friendly, & even had some of his photographs published .The last time I saw him, he was the same good-hearted individual. My prayers & thoughts are with those who knew him & trust that they feel as blessed to have known him as I. Posted by Sandi Johnson - Bloomfield, IA - friend February 10, 2013

Garold was a cherished cousin. We played together often in our youth and graduated from high school the same year. He was a very good photographer and although he was very quiet, you could tell he was also intelligent. It is good to know that he secured his place in Heaven by accepting Christ as his Saviour and is now at home, free of pain.
