Uncle Roscoe was the 'cool Uncle' in the family. He was a big smart aleck and loved to drive fast. I didn't see him much in the last few years but when I did he always had a hug for me and something witty to say. I know where I got my mouth from and my lead foot. Haha. Alicia Walden Harvey

Had just driven by Walter's house recently and wondered how he was doing. We met him at the Y several years ago and looked forward to our chats. He was a gentle soul and interesting to learn his home place was by Sharon Chapel, which is near our former neighborhood. To his family, we send our heartfelt sympathy
