Iola K McMorrow

DEC 17, 1917 - MAR 9, 2019

Iola K (Cochran) McMorrow, 101, of Cincinnati, Iowa, passed away on March 9, 2019. Iola was born in Davis County, Iowa, on December 17, 1917, the daughter of Harley and Arminta (Henderson) Cochran, who preceded her in death. The oldest of five children, Iola graduated from Cincinnati High School in 1936, and began teaching in rural Iowa schools, where she first taught grades K-8 in the one-room Brush College.

On September 1, 1938, in Trenton MO, Iola married James R. McMorrow, a thriving young evangelist. To this union two children were born, James Stephen and Mary Kathryn (Richard) McClure.

James and Iola had an active spiritual life and always in their life together, she was by his side. Together they graduated with Bachelor of Theology degrees from Ozark Bible College in Bentonville, AR, in 1942 and from San Jose Bible College in San Jose, CA, in 1946.

Wherever James was preaching, Iola took part in all church activities and frequently taught Sunday School classes. Each summer she directed childrens Daily Vacation Bible School. She cherished teaching all ages about prayer. Often, before James sermon, Iola would do chalk drawings during the special numbers.

James held many Revival Meetings from Iowa to the West Coast, taking the family to explore the mountains, parks and deserts along the way. Iola made fond memories of these vacations for the whole family. When home, the day always ended with the family reading the Bible together in front of the fireplace. Iola had a strong unwavering faith in God and family, and firmly believed in the power of prayer. After traveling for eight years in evangelistic meetings, youth camps and establishing churches, the McMorrow family settled in Ottumwa, IA, where both James and Iola taught in the Midwestern School of Evangelism, for 15 years.

The family built a new home in Cincinnati, and moved there in 1960. Iola completed her Bachelor of Science in Education, at Kirksville State Teachers College in 1969, and her Masters of Education at Northeast Missouri State College in 1974. Since the 1974/1975 school year, Iola taught 5th grade at Lakeview Elementary every year, until her retirement in 1987. During these years, she took her classes to the state capital in Des Moines.

A teacher for over 28 years, Iola was a lifelong learner. Her love of history prompted her to begin researching historical accounts of the Underground Railroad. Following retirement, Iola would share her knowledge of the Underground Railroad to Iowa and Missouri 5th graders. Iola often gave informational speeches regarding her research for the Appanoose Historical Society, and was recognized by The Historic Preservation Commission and Corporation. She was an active member of the Mercy Hospital Auxillary, receiving her 2000-hour pin. She was also a member of the Red Hat Society and the Appanoose County Arts Initiative.

Iola was a wonderful seamstress, sewing her 1st dress at the age of 8, and continued sewing for her family from that time on. She found time to sew throughout her life, sewing everything from curtains to doll clothes, and from ladys suits to upholstering furniture. She crocheted afghans, baby blankets, and sweaters. Iola was a talented quilter, quilting blankets and bedspreads. She enjoyed working with ceramics, paper crafts, basket weaving, painting, embroidery, tie dying, candle making, beading and other jewelry creations throughout her life. Reading was a passion as well as writing stories and poetry. In 2000, she wrote a short paperback book about the Harley Cochran family. She related many fun memories and stories of her family life, school years, and family gatherings. While developing genealogy for both the Cochran and McMorrow families, she was elated to meet many cousins and unknown relatives, that fast became lifelong friends. Iola found joy in collecting family heirlooms, antiques, Ty Beanie Babies, and completing Sudoku and crossword puzzles.

Preceding her in death were son, James Stephen, May 5, 1991, and husband, James Robert, September 26, 1996. Also, preceding Iola in death were her siblings, sister Ilin Bowen, (Doris), brothers Ivan Cochran, (Darlene), Ira Cochran (Lillian), Victor Cochran (Vi); an infant sister; and Sisters-in-law, Mary Corder, (Ted), Mabel

My sympathies go out to the Family of Iola. She was my Dad's (Rex Cochran) first cousin, with their fathers (Harley and Otis) being brothers. Although I maybe only met Iola a couple of times in my life (I am now 60), her name was mentioned by my Dad, my paternal grandparents, and my paternal aunts and uncles, every now and then, and so I felt a certain sense of familiarity with Iola, and so I now feel another loss has been experienced in our Cochran Family. May the Lord Jesus Christ comfort all of us, now and always. Amen.

I enjoyed working with your Mother during her teaching years at Cincinnati and Lakeview. If I had a problem with a project I could call her and she would tell me how to fix it. She was a wonderful talented lady.

James and Iola had a great impact on my life beginning as a very young girl. My parents would travel to any nearby church to hear James speak at revival meetings. In my memory he always told a bible story to go with his sermon. I had no trouble listening. Iola was a good example of a supportive and loving wife. She was a blessing to so many people. In later years I was not around her but I treasure the memories.

I have very fond memories of Mrs. McMorrow from when she and her husband came to Winigan, MO to lead the Christian Church Vacation Bible School when I was a child. She was always very kind. Later in life when I moved to Centerville and got reacquainted with lola, I found that she was still a very kind and sweet woman. It was a pleasure to be in her company and she will be missed here but surely rewarded in heaven above.
