Jack Dykes

MAY 9, 1934 - JUL 22, 2008

Floyd "Jack" Dykes, age 74 of Centerville, Iowa died July 22, 2008 at Mercy Medical Center in Des Moines, Iowa.

Jack was born May 9, 1934, the son of Floyd and Dessie (Main) Dykes Sr. in Centerville, Iowa. He graduated from Centerville High School in 1951.

Jack married Loretta Shepard on April 11, 1954 at the First Baptist Church in Centerville, Iowa. Jack worked in food industry sales before joining Hy-Vee. He managed the Centerville Hy-Vee for nineteen years, retiring September, 1998.

Jack enjoyed his family, grandchildren and their activities, fishing, hunting, and spending time on his acreage mowing and being in God's nature. Children of all ages in this community were of interest to Jack. He would talk to them about their accomplishments in school, sports and their goals. Jack was very thankful for their friendships.

Jack is survived by his wife, Loretta; three children, Brad (Sheryl) Dykes of Yankton, South Dakota, Brent (Mary) Dykes of Omaha, Nebraska, Brenda (Wayne) Jacobson of Cedar Falls, Iowa; seven grandchildren, Erica (Erik) Feldick of Waterloo, Iowa, Lindsey (Matt) Pulverenti of Omaha, Nebraska, Ethan Jacobson of Cedar Falls, Iowa, Kaleigh Dykes of Chicago, Illinois, Erin Dykes of Omaha, Nebraska, Evan Dykes of Yankton, South Dakota, and Kramer Dykes of Omaha, Nebraska; two sisters, Frances Dooley of Centerville, Iowa, and Deyolene Shanahan of Centerville, Iowa; and a brother, Dick Dykes.

Jack is also survived by his church family. He was very thankful for all they have done for him in his good days as well as when he was sick. Jack was preceded in death by his parents, and a sister, Hilda Walters.

Dear Loretta, I always thought Jack was helpful at HyVee. One time when shopping there he helped me find everything I needed. I didn't know of very many store managers who would do this. I always thought of the HyVee slogan when I saw Jack, a smile in every aisle. I will miss seeing the two of you together at the Redette basketball games. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Loretta, Brad and Brent, My sympathy to all of you on the passing of Jack. I thought very highly of Jack as he was a great man with all the traits of a true gentleman. Jack helped me so much from the beginning in Centerville and I will always be thankful for his and my friendship. I know God will heal your broken hearts in time and we all know he is in a better place and at peace. May God bless each of you in your time of sorrow and rejoice.
