Larry Dean Carson

OCT 5, 1940 - AUG 20, 2008

Larry Dean Carson, age 67, of Centerville died Wednesday, August 20, 2008 at the Golden Age Care Center in Centerville.

He was born October 5, 1940 in Centerville, Iowa to Paul and Marie (Clester) Carson. He was united in marriage to Judy Donovan June 4, 1961 and they later divorced.

Larry grew up in Cincinnati and was a graduate of Cincinnati High School and went on to receive his barber certification. He worked as a barber with Lyle Warren until health issues ended his career.

He was affiliated with the Dale Church north of Centerville and enjoyed hunting, fishing and playing cards with his friends.

He is survived by a son, Mark (Beverly) Carson and one daughter, Candy Vanderheyden of Elgin, Illinois. Also surviving Larry is a twin sister, Kay Brown of Centerville, and two nieces and their families.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents.

Kay, Candy, and family Please accept my sincere sympathy in the loss of Larry. I'll never forget the time he took Candy & Penny on a vacation to Branson I believe, and they came back & were dancing minicking one of the more hillbilly type dancing they had seen. They had such a good time. Larry was a good person. May precious memories always have a special place in your hearts. Posted by Gay Bailey August 25, 2008

I'm so sorry to hear about the death of your loved one. I hope the memories you hold dear will help sustain you during this difficult time. Please accept my condolences and find encouragement in the Scriptures where it says that death, mourning, outcry and pain will be no more. The former things will have passed away.
