Ginny, I dont even know where to begin. I have so many questions. I feel this ache in my heart that just seems to take my very breath away. Every time I look into the beautiful faces of Kat and Tay I will see you. You were the best mother and the best person in the whole world but nobody knew the pain that you must have been going through and for this i am so sorry. I thought about picking up the phone so many times in the last two weeks but instead thought only of myself and asked Carla how you were doing. For this I am sorry and always will be. As i sit here and look at Riley and her short hair I will never forget the good laugh we had over pizza about kids cutting their own hair. your Kat with her pigtail and my Riley with her whole head. We have so many memories that I will keep in my heart forever. I never thought about organ donation until now and realized what a wonderful gift that you have given so many and for this valuable lesson in generosity i thank you. I remember when your mother went into labor to have you and what she claims to have beent he hottest day of the year, i was only four and couldnt understand the concept of labor, i just knew i wanted to go for a ride in the car. Those were the days. I remember how we used to put our heads together and raise total cain with Jimmy. Man did we have fun with him. I have so many things I want to say to you and Wish I would have taken the time to say them. Ginny, always remember that I love you so much and that I will miss you so much. You will never be forgotten. Posted by angela October 29, 2008
