To the family, my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Please find comfort in the knowledge that soon God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things (will) have passed away.(Rev. 213,4) May this promise give you comfort now and a real hope for the future. My deepest sympathies.

Diane - You were a second mom to me. You welcomed me into your home with a warm smile and a hug every time I came over, and offered me words of encouragement when they were absent in my house. You always had something amazing cooking or baking in the kitchen. Thank you for letting me share a dinner table with you and your family more times than I can remember. I'm sorry for all the times Clarice and I threw softballs into your garden, buried something stupid in the yard or left our bikes in your flowers. Somehow you always fixed our reign of terror. I'm especially thankful for your patience, especially when I broke Clarices antique bed by being a rambunctious preteen. You were so patient and kind. Most importantly, you raised the most amazing daughters and loved my other Dad, Tom. For what it is worth, your love and legacy will remain with them, and with me. I love and miss you.

I will always remember the delicious meals my mom made and how talented and crafty she was. She worked endlessly in the garden at the house in Oak Creek and I can only dream of having her green thumb. I will keep these memories of her close to me. She left us too soon and my heart is so heavy. I love you, mom, and I know she will be watching over us always.....Clarice

I'm really not good with this kind of stuff, but Mom, you were the most kind hearted, caring person that I ever knew. We didn't always see eye to eye, but I am heartbroken that I didn't get a chance to say bye for good. It still feels so unreal. Thank you for always cooking the best meals and always wanting to make me a special birthday cake. You will forever be missed. -Jessica
