Janice - We're sitting around in Mom and Dad's living room in Centerville and just saw your posting and Dad wanted to say thanks for your comments. Half of us kids are here now and the others will be here tomorrow or Saturday morning. Danny just said we also have fond memories of your family and the garden next to our house. Rae remembers chasing the baby rabbits in the garden. Dad wants to know if you recall your Mom babysitting for us kids while they were off to Oskaloosa for another baby to be delivered Good ol' Eddyville. Where are you living now Regards, Posted by Jerry Wonderlich - Centerville,, IA - Youngest Son of Marian March 02, 2012

Jan Houser - Thank you for your comments to my family. Yes, I was very honored to know and date Glynis! I remember encouraging her to run for the pageant and told her she would be a shoe in to win. That was a memorable summer and fall in Centerville. Doesn't every Centerville boy dream of dating a Pancake Day Queen Please pass along my regards to her. I have two girls, 14 and 15. I always check out the size of the remaining Christmas trees at your former place east of town on the few occasions I drive that direction. Thanks again. especially remember daughters Marci, Peggy and Rhonda. Great ladies. Remember going back to St. Mary's in summertime and seeing her and Lee. Would also see her 3 daughters, Peggy, Marci and Rhonda with family members. She was so strong in her faith. It was rare to see the people at Mass that I had seen in the past as we all grow older and the Parish has changed so much. Marian was an inspiration of the kind of Grandmother I am trying to be. What a cornerstone of that Parish. I am so sorry and am sure she will be missed by her beautiful family. Jeanie Benac Posted by Jeanie Benac - Columbia, MO - friend March 04, 2012

I was sad to hear of Marian's passing. I saw her at Pancake Day last year and knew she wasn't good. I went to Marian's day care from age 4-12, and knew her and her family very well. At Pancake Day I attempted to name all of her children in order of birth. I missed it by one. The time I spent in her home had a significant influence on my life. I wish I had known of her passing earlier so I could have attended the service. I offer my condolences to all the family. Posted by Steven Anderson - Springfield, MO June 24, 2012

I have so many memories from the holidays over the years, sick days I spent at your house and bringing my babies to visit you. You were always busy doing something. Reading the stack of newspapers that you could never quite keep up with, maybe because you were so busy snipping out Dear Abby columns and comic strips to send to whoever it reminded you of. Keeping your house oh so clean tidy with everything in its place. Every meal felt like a treat, not sure why your food tasted so much better than when others would make it using the exact same recipe. Thanks for the countless bowls of rice with bread and butter (warmed up in the microwave). You were a hardworking, patient and caring person. Hopefully some of that rubbed off on me.
