As a little girl I would visit Numa Christian Church and was in Sunday School with Janice. She was a beautiful reader and every bit a proper lady. Janice was a faithful member of the Numa Christian Church and a testimony to the community of her love for her Lord. Our loss is heaven's gain. Posted by Jennifer Dove Daniels January 20, 2010

I will never forget Janice, she was always so kind to us. Truly a joyful person. I remember her room at Grandpa Tony's house was wallpapered with pictures of Elvis Presley, now she can talk to him face to face. God Bless you all. Posted by Dan Thrasher February 03, 2010
