My Dear Linda, My heart aches for losing you. I know you believed in Jesus and you are with Him now, your body healed and His arms around you. You will be forever in my heart, I will hear your laughter in music, I will feel your hugs when I am hugged, I will smile with all our memories when I see pictures of you and my heart will cry for wanting to chat with you at times and knowing I cannot. There is a saying when a loved one passes into Heaven, you now know the name of your Guardian Angel. Linda, you will forever be mine. I love you, I miss you and was honored and privileged to be your friend for 61 years. May your blessings be bountiful in Heaven, see you when I get there. Oh my gosh, I am saddened by hearing the loss of my dear friend of 61 years. I met Linda Sullivan Glovas when we were both 4 years old and lived across the street from her family for many, many years. Linda was dear to me and so kind and we remained friends all these years even though I moved miles away to California. I had the opportunity to see and visit with Linda a couple years back and I cherish that visit and the pictures we took. My prayers and thoughts are with her family. Rest in Peace dear friend. Gods arms are around you now. Love you so much. Jill Wagoner Halvorson, San Jose, CA. Posted by JILL WAGONER HALVORSON January 08, 2010
