I have so many fond memories of my Great Aunt Miriam. She was always so fun to be around! Aunt Miriam had an infectious smile and wonderful laugh. She was also a terrific cook. Our family loved the nut roll she made for the Thanksgivings we were together. She will be sorely missed and forever loved! Posted by Megan Ramspott May 14, 2010

My sympathy goes out to Miriam's family. Miriam was a member of the Nancy McKay Harsh chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. She was a faithful member and acted as the Flag chairman. Each month she gave an interesting flag fact. We will certainly miss her at our meetings. Posted by Marjorie Kinkade May 12, 2010
