Catherine Kelley

JUL 17, 1933 - JUL 21, 2010

Catherine Christine Kelley Catherine Christine Kelley of O'Fallon, Missouri died Wednesday, July 21, 2010 in St. Lukes Hospital, St. Louis, Missouri.

Christine was born July 17, 1933 to Argyle and Eva Kelley Her education was at Calathump School through the 8th grade and then she attended Allerton High School where she graduated in 1952. Following graduation she moved to Des Moines where she went to work for New York Life Insurance Co. Later she was transferred to Kansas City and after a few years there she was transferred to Minneapolis, Minnesota. She retired after over forty years of faithful service.

Upon retirement, she moved to O'Fallon, Missouri to be closer to family members. She enjoyed bowling and bowled in leagues in both Minneapolis and O'Fallon. She was a member of the Methodist Church in Allerton. But while in O'Fallon she attended Open Hearts Methodist Church in Wright City, Missouri. At Open Hearts she was very active helping at the food pantry. She seldom missed a Thursday and made many donations when she saw the need.

Survivors include a brother, Claire (Margot) of Rockford, IL. a sister, Deloris (Don) Seaman of Innsbrook, Missouri, two nieces, Nancy and Cheryl, two nephews, Richard & Gary, one great niece and three great nephews. Christine was predeceased by her parents, grandparents and one sister.

Chris and I became friends after I transferred to New York Life from the Chicago office. We enjoyed many holidays together along with my sister, Christy. She was the avid bowler and thoroughly enjoyed the game. I always marveled at how immaculate she kept her automobile. It was spotless. I will miss our monthly telephone conversations. My deepest condolences to her Family. She always spoke lovingly of you all and was especially proud of Valerie and Alex.
