So very sorry to hear of the passing of Aunt Goldie. I have many memories of her and Uncle Francis at my parents farm (Ellen & Dick). Francis coming to hunt pheasants and Goldie helping out with the meal preparation while crocheting in between. Hugs to you all.

I haven't seen Aunt Goldie for years but remember what a kind, sweet woman that she was. Her hands were always busy making something. I always wished she lived closer so that she could teach me how to knit or crochet. My thoughts and prayers are with all of her loved ones. May fond memories fill the empty place in your hearts. Hugs, Diana
