Andrew Lind

JAN 21, 1983 - MAY 28, 2011

Andrew George "Andy" Lind, age 28 of Mystic, Iowa, died Saturday, May 28, 2011. Andy was born January 21, 1983, in Centerville, Iowa, the son of Robert and Patti Lind, to whom he was the third child. His siblings are Elizabeth, Peter, and Alex. After high school, Andy attended Indian Hills Community College where he earned an AA degree. He worked as a carpenter while going to school, but ultimately re-joined his brothers and father in the family greenhouse business. Andy was blessed with a wealth of talent in the areas of landscaping and carpentry. His true passion, however, was bow hunting, especially in the desert southwest with his friends and family. He made a home north of Mystic with his long-time love Alicia Schoolcraft and their dogs. Andy is survived by his mother and father, his loving siblings Elizabeth of Washington, DC, Peter of Centerville, Alex of Mystic, and Alicia Schoolcraft of Mystic, as well as a far-reaching web of family and friends. A Celebration of Life service will be held 10AM Thursday morning, June 2, 2011 at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Centerville with Fr. Mike Volkmer and Rev Kathy Franzenburg officiating. The family will be present from 5-8PM Wednesday at the Lange Funeral Home, Centerville to greet friends. Burial of the cremains will be in Oakland Cemetery A memorial has been established to the "Andy Lind Memorial Youth Hunt" and may be left or mailed to the Lange Funeral Home, 1900 South 18th St, Centerville, Iowa, 52544 Condolences may be left at www.langefh.com

Dear Uncle Rob, Aunt Patti, Liz, Pete, and Al, We are praying for you all! I have so many wonderful memories of Andy growing up. When I would come and stay in C Ville for the week, he would ALWAYS make me laugh with his wonderful sense of humor. I will never forget when all of us kids would chase each other through the fields out back, through the cows, to the little cabin that Rob built. He was always looking for ways to help others out and was so caring! He will be missed by so many! Sending you a million hugs and prayers from Colorado~ please call us if you need ANYTHING! Rob and Patti, What can I say The two of you are wonderful parents to all your children. I know that because years ago I knew the Love and Caring in your hearts, at that time. With you, i know it's only gotten better with your Love and Gentleness over the years. Andy was a very fortunate young man to have you as his parents. I know this doesn't help much but there is Good News. You'll get to be with him in a perfect place, Heaven. It 's real and Andy is now having a blast there! I truly believe this. Have Faith and Believe in the promises God has made to us about Heaven! God - you know he will get you through this! God Bless you and your families. Patti, we have quite a history from the early days that I won't ever forget.. Rob, the first time I met you and many many other times, I knew you were full of Love, Caring and kind insigjhtfulness that not many have. Again, I am very sorry for your loss. Dear Patti, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your son Andy. I lost my brother when he was just 42 years old, and it seemed incomprehensible to me that he could forever be out of my life. It took a long time to get over that loss, and I expect that Andy's loss will weigh heavily on you and your family for a long time. But it's OK to grieve and feel sad - don't let anyone deprive you of your rightful grief. When you are ready to move on, you will know it. Please tell Andy's siblings that I understand the pain they are feeling -- who are we more biologically connected to than our siblings It probably feels like a piece of them is missing. But it's all true that the pain will eventually recede, to be replaced by warm memories. Until then, support and love one another and do whatever it takes to get through the grief. Dear Rob, Patti, Alicia and family, The expression a heavy heart has never felt more real as I relate it to your loss and ours. Mulching my garden last night, I lifted a heavy pitchfork full again and again, and I thought about Andy and how precious he is to you all. I have my own brood of sons, the middle one named Andrew , so my heart breaks for you and them and all of us. Do know that I appreciate everyday I am on the IHCC campus-- the trees, and the bushes, the flowers and the beds that Andy had a hand in creating. There is much to see him in. And that is something. The services were powerful. And I don't believe I heard any more sobs or sniffles than when Rob spoke. The English teacher in me recognizes the pathetic fallacy of these raindrops drenching us in tears from heaven. If you need to cry or scream or need anything we can offer, please let us know. You will be on our minds, in our hearts, and in our prayers in the days ahead. May God comfort and bless you. Andy was a friend that I met through archery. We had an instant connection because of his winning personality and awesome attitude. Andy always encouraged me to hang in there when shooting wasn't going like I wanted it to and he always had a kind word for everyone. I never heard Andy swear, downgrade anyone, or make excuses if he wasn't shooting up to his standards. What an awesome friend he was and he will be greatly missed at our tournaments. Andy ordered a leather quiver from me and he was so proud when it was finished. He told everyone about my quivers and he helped to promote my business. You are in our every thought and prayers. Andy was a very special young man who was blessed with a wonderful family and many friends. He will be sorely missed by his family, his friends and a community that has watched him grow into such a great young man. He was always very there to help in any way at the greenhouse and it was a joy to watch him work in the community doing what he did so well. He was always ready to help the garden club with the many projects in the community. May the good Lord hold you in his hands. Posted by John and Claudia McCarthy - Friends May 31, 2011

Our thoughts and prayers are with your entire familyl at this tragic time. The many memories generated by the mention of the name, Lind...of course starting with the wonderful friends and neighbors on Star Route; the carpooling to swim team, baseball games; the parties with all kids involved. Teaching at St.Mary's. Thank you Linds for giving us a glimpse of what Heaven will be like. Andy was chosen to leave this earth early to prepare a place for the rest of us. Wonder what going to the Zoo will be like under the angels directions Know that we are only a short drive away and are available whenever you call. I have many great memories of Andy starting way back in elementary school. He was always smiling and trying to make you laugh if you were having a bad day.. I remember study hall in High school with him, there was never a dull moment when he was around. He was a very hard worker and would help anyone however he could. I cant imagine the pain that his family and Alicia are feeling, My heart goes out to all of them... God will help you through this tough time... Andy was a good friend of mind throughout highschool and after. He was always up for a good laugh...wanting to see me do dumb things so we could laugh about it later. I will always remember him as being a very hardworker, and a loyal and honest friend. He always seemed very close to his family.
