OUR CONDOLENCES TO STEVE, DENNY, AND SCOTT AND ALL YOUR FAMILIES. I lived with the Jacksons for a year and a half back in the 70's. We became great friends and one of the highlights was Saturday night around their kitchen table, Margaret would always have great snacks. Glen was the ultimate trucker and small businessman. I would love to hear him laugh. One of those times that laughter brought to the front was a sticker that he had on the tailgate on his gravel hauler! It read and I apologize, Don't argue with your wife dicker! MAY YOU REST IN PEACE GLEN!
