The whole world lost one of the most beautiful and truly loving and genuine women it can ever know. Jean was everything a woman can be and more, and the love she held in her heart touched everything she ever did. Her marriage to my Uncle Bob was one of soulmate, and I know they are still and will remain together. I will always regret I was not able to visit her and spend time with my family more than I did. My heart and sincere sympathy go out to her beautiful family -- her spirit is still at home in your love.
