So many fond memories of Grandma. I remember so well the wonderful Sunday dinners with the family and Grandma's never to be duplicated chicken and noodles. Playing board games on the kitchen table with the women while the men nap in the living room. I spent several summer's visiting the farm and was always marveled and how Grandma and Grandpa worked sunup to sundown seeming to love every minute of it. There always seemed to be a new kitten, rabbit or lamb being born and was such a treat for the boy from 'town' to see. I love you Grandma! Your memory will be with me forever!!

I'll always have fond memories of those Sunday family dinners and the love and laughter overflowing from the kitchen from my aunts and my mamma. May we always trust in the LORD.

I have fond memories of riding my bike up the road or my horse across the field to visit Luella and Homer. She was a dear sweet lady. I'm sorry that weather prevented me from attending her service. Warm memories of her will always be in my heart.

As I grew up with Luella as my neighbor I have lots of fond memories of this wonderful woman. I remember her laughter. We would go and visit them and I would help her gather the eggs as Homer would show dad his latest woodworking project. She was like a grandmother to my sister and myself. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

She was always quick with a hug and kiss. I remember Homemade Egg Noodles. I remember fresh straw berries. I remember listening to a Peter and the Wolf record and falling asleep on a sofa with arms so big I could sit on them as a kid. I hope you find true peace after a long life Grandmother.
