I remember growing up and Christmas and New Year my dad's side of the family would come to our house. Always plenty of kids and new babies. We had a good time and played bingo and traveling bingo till around 11:30, then we would go out to the cars and honk horns for one minute at midnight. Those were the good old times. As the kids got older and married they went to their spouses so the people just got less and less.

I knew Larry for the year that I worked in Mystic when he was on the City Council. One thing I appreciated about Larry, when you were his friend, he would do anything for you. A hard trait to find and was lucky to know him. Prayers go out to all of his family and friends. Posted by Joe and Amy Moorman and family - Centerville, IN - friend co-worker January 17, 2015
