Roger and Michael, I am so sorry about your dad. I see where he is to be buried today, and the weather is so bad with the snow, I haven't been shoveled out yet. Rick has been so busy, trying to keep up with his customers. My thoughts and prayers are with you two and the rest of your family! Your dad was a good man and I really miss your Mom coming next door like she used too to see Mary and John years ago. Fond memories of you boys and your family! Take care and come see me if you can. I moved back on Bank Street in the old home place.....Wilma Jeane Woolsey, King, Wilson.
