I remember growing up across the street from the Peeks. Debby and Donna and I played together a lot. Kermit and Joyce were always nice people to us kids. That was a long time ago, but the memories are still there. I am sorry for the family's loss.

We have so many wonderful memories of Kermit and Joyce. We've missed seeing them these past six years since Kermit passed away and Joyce moved. We are so thankful for all the wonderful times we had with them while God allowed them time on this earth. God be with the families as they learn to live without these dear people.
