My deepest sympathies to Nick's family. I have not seen Nick since 1973, when I was only fifteen years old. I met him then because his wife at the time (Marge McGrann) was my stepmom Judy McGrann's sister. Nick and Marge used to come to our house that summer, and usually Nick would bring his boat and we all would go to Lake Rathbun to boat and water ski. I always liked Nick, and have fond memories of those days, and am sad to learn that he has passed on. May God comfort his family at this time and always. Amen.
