Joyce could brighten your day by saying hello. Like my sister Jane and Judy Guin said, we were in 4-H together. When I joined she was so friendly and after I moved away from Iowa, when I came back visiting if I bumped into her I always felt like I had met a friend. She was a special person and whatever Heaven in like she is certainly there.

I was so sorry and saddened to hear that Joyce has passed! Her family and mine were family friends and so I have many wonderful memories of her as a child. I always liked her so much. She was a kind and compassionate person for whom I had great respect.! I regret not knowing about this until this evening - 94. I wish I couldve come to her visitation and funeral. I also have many wonderful memories of Joyce family and am thinking of you all! Howard, Lori, Brian, and Lynette - I will be sending love and prayers your way. Im sure Joyce is watching over you from home right now. Take care! Love, Robin such a sweet person and a kind smile. I have many special memories of summers I stayed with Great Aunt Joyce. So thankful for the time we were able to share. Also thankful for the time we were able to spend at reunions over the years. Family meant a lot to her, you could tell, and I am happy I could share my family with her. What a blessing she has been to so many. I will miss her. Prayers for the family for peace in knowing she is in the arms of our Lord. Keep your memories close to your heart.

Aunt Joyce was an example of a true Proverbs 31 woman. She is the example I try to use when walking in my Faith. I will miss her wisdom, loving nature, and her humor. She knew how to love everyone she met, and was always kind to others. God, Uncle Howard, and her family was the important things to her and it showed. I know She is dancing with Jesus! Love you always! The Frealy's- Aaron, Mirinda, Autumn, and Avery

Joyce was a Real True Christian who touched our family in many ways. Even though she knew growing the church would be more work for her as a secretary, she wanted to see it grow. She and Howard were two of our favorite people!
