Uncle Donald was one of the hardest working, committed Christians I have ever encountered. He was humble with a servant's heart. His life was an inspiration to Kim and me. His devotion to his family, both Twila and children, as well as his parents and brothers and sisters was an example to follow. But his greatest influence came from his wholehearted love for Christ. Thank you, Uncle Donald, for being such a godly example.

Brother Williams was my pastor in Lacona. Some things that come to mind when I think of him ... Gentle spirit, kind, compassionate, loving, mild mannered, prayer warrior, faithful, servant... A genuine man of God! May memories and God's love comfort you!
