Lee and I want you to know you are in our thoughts and prayers. I have so many many fond memories of Violet and your family. The memories of our families playing cards together and the kids all played together. Violet made the 'best' candy peanutbutter kisses at Christmas time. One year when Shirley and I celebrated our birthdays together she made me some all my own. I thought that was a great birthday present and have remembered that many times throughout the years. Another time when I got some cinnamon rolls from her she told me how much she enjoyed kneading the dough and making the rolls. Her love of what she was doing must have gone into her work because the rolls were terrific. Keep hold of all your cherished memories as they will help in the days to come.

I'm sorry, I'm terrible with words. 'Sorrow' & 'loss' don't seem like good enough words, but these few sentences seem to be over-doing it. You are in our thoughts & prayers.
