Memories of Aunt Vera are ever present in my life. Although I didn't grow up with Vera in my daily life....she was there. I can clearly hear her voice in my head and remember the feeling of a warm hug from her. There was always food on the table, coffee brewing and a welcome gathering space for anyone who dropped by. She was a force and I admired her no nonsense way to life. She will be missed. The next warm breeze I feel on my cheek will remind me of her presence. Thank you for giving us your everything....rest in peace.
