Jo Ann Moorman

AUG 22, 1940 - JUN 28, 2020

Jo Ann Moorman, age 79, of Mystic, went to be with the lord on Sunday, June 28, 2020 at her home surrounded by her loving family.

Jo Ann was born on August 22, 1940 in Memphis, Missouri, the daughter of Jesse Easterday and Pansy June (Childress) Easterday. She graduated in 1957 from Memphis High School in Memphis, Missouri. She furthered her education in El Camino, California in 1957. Jo Ann was united in marriage to Fred Allen Moorman Sr. on October 18, 1958. To this union, eleven children were born, Marla, Fred Jr, David, Becky, Sheila, Kathy, Holly, Mary Ann, Jaime, Josh, and Jake.

Jo Ann was a very hard worker. She worked for 33 years at Wells Manufacturing as a Logistics technician. Even if she was sick, she didnt miss a day of work. She received 33 perfect attendance awards.

Jo Ann was very active throughout her lifetime. In 1957, she was the Appanoose County Rodeo Queen. She was on the Mystic 4th of July Booster Club for many years, ran the Mystic Beauty/Cutie Contest yearly, and served on the Mystic Community Church Board for 13 years. She was the Manager of Hope Chest Thrift Store in Centerville. Jo Ann started and led her own bowling team, and Moorman's TV & Appliance with her husband Fred for over 40 years. She has been a huge supporter of CHS Wrestling Booster Club for several years. She loved attending her childrens and grandchildrens sports and other activities. Jo Ann enjoyed going to bingo and bowling with her friends and family.

Left to cherish Jo Anns memory are her husband of over 61 years, Fred Moorman Sr.; her children, Fred (Gail) Moorman Jr., David (Gloria) Moorman, Becky (Tim) Thomas, Sheila (Terry) Kauzlarich, Kathy Henderson, Holly (Shawn) Oden, Mary Ann (Scott) Sampson, Jaime (Jamie) Cochran, Josh (Shirley) Moorman, and Jake (Jessica) Moorman; twenty eight grandchildren, Creighton Moorman, Ethan (Rachel) Moorman, Jeremy (Kayla) Moorman, Jesse (Bailey) Moorman, Jordan (Conner)
