Heather Thomas Schroeder

AUG 28, 1978 - SEP 12, 2011

Heather Machelles Thomas Schroeder, age 33, began to organize and shake up heaven on Monday, September 12, 2011 after passing away at Kavanagh House in Des Moines, Iowa.

Heather began her life's journey in Corydon, Iowa on August 28, 1978. She loved playing with her pets and getting dirty on the farm until her family later moved to the Des Moines area during her childhood. Her life always seemed to include many trips to hospitals, where as a small child she climbed out of bed as soon as she could and headed to the hospital playroom.

She always refused to tolerate anyone feeling sorry for her or to think of her as different in any way because of her health challenges. Heather loved going to concerts of many genres. Her favorite Christmas gift from her husband, Jay was tickets to see Lady Gaga in Chicago.

After receiving the gift of life twice with two kidney transplants, she passionately promoted awareness of organ and tissue donation. One of her proudest moments was winning a gold medal in ballroom dancing at the National Transplant Games. All participants of the games were either recipients or family donors of organ transplants.

Heather graduated from Bondurant High School and then became a Registered Nurse at Mercy College of Health Sciences, where she was the commencement speaker. She practiced renal, hospice and incarceration nursing. In August 2002, she met the love of her life on a blind date and called both her mom and dad that night saying she had met her husband.

Jay and Heather traveled to many parts of the country making memories. Heather loved attending NASCAR races with her father. Those missing her deeply are her newborn son, William; husband, Jay Schroeder; brother, Ben Gillette; mother, Sandy (Art) Decker; father, Terry Thomas and his fianc Kathleen Bubon; grandfather Courtney (Judy) Siglin; parents in law, Barb and Lowell Schroeder; brother in law, Dana Schroeder and his fianc, Sue Britt, and countless others whose lives were touched by Heather's smile and 'Bring It' attitude.

Heather fought and won so many battles in her life with such humor, grace and dignity. Her desire to be treated just like everyone else despite her health issues has taught me so very much about facing health issues as just a part of a normal day and not letting them get in the way of the things you still want to do and accomplish in life. Heather's smile lit up the room and her strength was admirable. I am better for knowing her. I will miss her and think of her often. Sandy and Jay, take comfort in knowing that you will see her in Will, a little more every day. She will be watching over him closely.

Heather was truly a vivacious beauty! She always made me laugh. She was witty and spunky! Always up beat no matter her circumstances, but she was a true redhead when she was mad! My life was touched by hers and will be forever changed because of the challenges that she endured with her effervescent personality and attitude toward living. One thing I knew about her was that she had such a desire to be a mom and I am so glad that she was able to experience it before she passed. William is a miracle, but so was his mom. Heather will be forever remembered by anyone that ever knew her or met her. Jay my heart breaks for you and Will and you will continue to be in my prayers and thoughts throughout this journey.
