My earliest memories include Shirley. As my babysitter when I was a child, caretaker when our family was in tragedy and friend, for life, she is a huge part of who I am. I am so thankful for her and all she poured into me and others. I am sure the reunion in Heaven is fantastic as Jerry, my mom and dad are together again.

Grandma you were the best! No one could cook like you! I remember staying the summer with you and grandpa out at the parks. Playing bingo, yatzee, racko. You teaching me how to make kidney bean salad. Yum 😊 You we're always such a kind, patient, caring grandma. You were a fighter for sure but you were tired and God knew this. It's never goodbye... it's til I see you again. ❤️

Grandma you'll be missed very much. I've been fortunate to spend the last few years spending quite a bit of time with you and learning things about you and grandpa's life that I didn't know. Spending time watching game shows and playing along. I appreciate everything you did for me and Skylar and all the home cooked meals. All the little vacations you took me on as a kid. And all the summers I stayed with you and Grandpa. You guys were the best ever!
