Over the last few days I've been remembering Julie. We met in high school and were the best of friends for a little while until going our own ways, like people doo in high school. One hot summer night, Julie and I and our dates watched a meteor shower. How cool is that One winter night we went to Bloomfield for some reason and got stranded on the way back due to a blizzard. Her parents were always gracious and welcoming. I will treasure my fond memories of Julie. RIP.

I'm sad to see that we've lost another classmate. Julie and I had a lot of laughs when we were in school. We were part of a 'Julie' club. Julie (Ann) Mattingly was Julie A., I was Julie B., and Julie (Christine) Howe was Julie C. We thought we were so clever! I guess we were lucky too that our names and initials worked out so nicely. She was easy to laugh and have fun with. Her picture here is so familiar and so beautiful. I wish now I would have made an effort to get in touch with her again after we were out of school.
