Carroll V Murdy

JUN 19, 1924 - DEC 30, 2024

Carroll Vern Murdy, age 100, of Mystic, passed away December 30, 2024 at his home.

Carroll was born on June 19, 1924 in Moulton, Iowa to Leland and Ruth (Dibble) Murdy. He graduated from high school with the class of 1941. On March 3, 1951 he married Marjorie Large, and together they raised their children Deborah, Lori, and Melisa.

Throughout most of his life Carroll was a machinist in factories. He worked for Ideal Industries in Sycamore, Illinois. He was an animal lover who enjoyed being outdoors. When he wasn't outdoors, he was usually reading a book, listening to music or doing a crossword puzzle. He was a hardworking, kind and honest man.

He will be remembered for his wonderful story telling of eras long gone. He was able to take his family through the journey of his life with vivid stories that will continue to be passed down.

Carroll is survived by his daughters, Deborah (Michael) Bender, Melisa (Kim) Harden, Lori (James) Warner; stepson Larry Dempsey; three grandchildren, Nikole Piper, Nathan Eagen and Shaun Allicks; five great-grandchildren, Hannah and Zachary Piper, Randi House, Chrissy Shaffer and Jon Pfeifer; one great-great grandchild, Matthew House.

He is preceded in death by his wife Marjorie and his parents; four sisters, Jewel Murdy, Jean Murdy, Zoe Dudley, and Fay Jack; three brothers Dale, Neil and Beryl.

A private family graveside service will be on May 3, 2025 at Exline Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the donor's choice and may be mailed to Thomas Funeral Home, ATTN: Murdy Family, 501 North 18th Street, Centerville, Iowa 52544. Condolences may be shared online at www.thomasfh.com or www.facebook.com/thomasfuneralhome.

I had the honor of visiting my Great Uncle Carroll when I was a young girl. Mama and Daddy (Ed and Sharon Murdy) were holding revival in Northern Missouri at the time, and we traveled to Mystic to see him. What a sweet, and kind person he was. Rest in peace.

My heart and prayers of our Lord's comfort and peace are with you Deborah, Lori, Melissa and family. We have never met, but uncle Carroll was my dad, Neil Murdy's brother. I only remember being around uncle Carrol a handful of times in my 56 years, but he was always so sweet and kind and I loved to hear his stories about his childhood with my dad. My sister in law Sonja Murdy told me that she and uncle Carroll exchanged Christmas cards every year until last Christmas. Uncle Carroll will be greatly missed and I look forward to the day I will see him and all of our family again in heaven. God bless you all! Your cousin, Sheila (Murdy) Allen in Walnut Hill, Florida.

I have fond memories of Uncle Carroll and Aunt Marjorie. They used to come to Missouri every summer and bring clothes to me that their girls had outgrown. I hope they knew what a blessing that was to me!! Uncle Carroll was a brother to my Grandpa Dale Murdy and I remember him being very kind and soft spoken. I know my dad loved him very much. Many prayers...Nancy Murdy Decker, Leitchfield, Kentucky
