Harrison Joel Roe

MAY 26, 2010 - SEP 1, 2025

God gifted the world with Harrison Joel Roe on May 26, 2010. He was the first-born grandchild on both sides of his family. God welcomed him home September 1, 2025 and though Harrison's time on earth was just 15 years, his purpose was complete.

Harrison was perfectly complex-laid back with an amazing sense of humor, yet anchored by strong values, wise beyond his years, yet innocent and pure. He was private, yet loved to talk; sensitive but quick to forgive, logical yet imaginative. He was polite, considerate, empathetic, and genuine. He carried himself with quiet humility, never complained, and approached life with quiet strength. Harrison held himself to high standards, seeking truth, understanding, and integrity in all he did. He was recognized as one of the top three students in his class, a testament to this. He rose to be a great leader and an inspiration to those of all ages.

Harrison delighted in the little joys of life: holidays, family gatherings, board games, rainy days, long walks, laughter, food, video games, and his beloved dogs, Ruby and Copper. He was witty, clever, and funny, yet also a serious thinker whose inner world was vast and brilliant. He wasn't afraid to ask questions and was always eager to learn. He loved to discuss ideas, explore perspectives, and ponder deeply. Books, especially the Eragon series, transported him into worlds as rich as the one he carried within.

Above all, Harrison cherished his family, friends and God.

Harrison did not want to be remembered as a sad story of a boy with cancer, but rather as someone who lived fully and faithfully. His relationship with God was important and his faith was not shallow, but hard earned through wrestling, questioning and ultimately trusting. His life is best honored not by mourning how he died, but by celebrating how he lived-as a child of God.

Though Harrison's earthly body has passed, his spirit lives forever in heaven. While most need a lifetime, Harrison fulfilled God's calling in just 15 years.

Harrison was lucky to have good parents and grandparents and siblings. We have been praying for him at my church in West Branch, Iowa and many of my friends have asked about him in the last 2 years. I know everyone will miss him, but he is safe in Jesus's arms, and pain free. I never really met him in person, but he wrote me a note, and I cherish it, through cards and letters, I got to know him. Thinking of his family and friends, God Bless. Carolyn and Jerome Hoxton, Iowa City, Iowa.
