My earliest memories are of my per-school years living near the Sinclairs. First of his brother Robert and later John and Sharon, the girls and Boyd. Remember being very young playmates with his niece Sylvia. Was always so impressed with how tall they were! Although it's been over 60 years since I saw him, I'll never forget him. I was so amazed at John ducking through doorways. And his loud booming voice and laugh! It was always a delight to see him as a child.

Will always cherish the days spent with uncle John and aunt Sharon on the farm. He was a great guy. Memories of our lunches in Humeston and he would tell us about what the grandchildren were up to. Loved his family dearly.
