I was shocked to see Clyde's obit this morning, because Clyde was my childhood hero and heroes aren't supposed to die. I hadn't seen Clyde since the early 70's when we all hung out in downtown Mystic. I was about 12 or 13 and Clyde was about 4 years older than me. Clyde was so muscular and strong but yet he had the heart of a lamb. Clyde even treated us "little kids" with respect. My deepest sympathies to Clyde's family and loved ones. May the Lord Jesus comfort you, now and always. Amen.

Q: What will you miss most about Clyde? A: I will miss the way Uncle Clyde always teased my Aunt Rosemary and the way he made her laugh. Now, he's up in heaven skies doing it back to Aunt Anna again. 😊 I will miss when every year when he was the uncle that never once forgot my birthday and always wrote to me on Facebook. I will miss Uncle Clyde and the way he loved my Aunt Rosemary and the way he loved our entire family. I can't picture life without you here on Earth Uncle Clyde. Thank you for always going to all the families gravesites every Memorial Day with Aunt Rosemary and placing flowers on their stones. Now, we will honor you. Fly high and watch over your beautiful wife of over 30 years and all your kids and grandkids. We love you forever Uncle Clyde! Your nieces, Cindy (Cortesio), Maddy, Gracie, and Breanna Tucker
