I have met "Hammer" on a couple of occasions when he came to visit his family, most recently on the passing of his brother, Bob. My heart and my prayers go out to this family. Our condolences to the entire family! We grew up in the Great West End. We played "trucks and cars" in the dirt and gravel, even got him to play baseball once in a while! We hung out at Heck's Grocery and the Deep Rock Station that his Uncle Bob ran. He always could come up with something to make us laugh. He never wore shoes in the summer, when we could get him to play baseball, he always took his tennis shoes off. I can remember him running barefoot on the red shale alley at the "Playground" at the West End (where the Law Center is now!) Anyway, Rest in Peace Cuz!
